

PRIVACY POLICY BC CASTINGS

REG NO : 1911493

The Terms and Conditions define and specify the basic rights and obligations of the operator arising from the Terms and Conditions, as well as its relationship with the advertiser.

The Terms and Conditions also set out the rules for placing advertisements and using all functional components of the web interface by the advertiser. The rights and obligations of the parties are further governed by the terms and conditions and instructions stated on the web interface.

In matters not regulated here, the relations between the operator and the advertiser are governed by legal regulations, in particular the Civil Code.

We do not share your personal data to the third party unless required by law. We collect your personal data and create a database from it, which is accessible to partners with the ability to search for users according to specified criteria.

In order to improve our services, we also perform statistical operations and user profiling (manually and automatically) with the aim of maximally adapting the selection of users from the database to the requirements and criteria of partners. We process personal data by manual and automated means

For inquiries - complain - partnership - sponsorship:

WhatsApp: +2347047777561

Email: booking@bccastings.com